UNIVERSITY LUTHERAN CHURCH

When did we stop believing in mystery? I am reflecting on some innocent comments made by students in my 5th grade First Communion class. Please do not think I am singling them out, because my question is larger than a few boys wondering, "Do we really drink the blood of Jesus?" My simple answer was, "Yes, of course, we do." Predictably, they giggled, and someone asked, "Does that mean we are cannibals?" I said, "That means we believe with our faith that Jesus wholly and really comes to us at Holy Communion, body and blood. We call this the real presence of Christ in the sacrament.

I am guessing many of my readers will side with the boys in my class. We rationalize the sacrament in such a way that we call it symbolic. I am not about to argue with anyone about this except to say, that while it looks like bread and wine and it is bread and wine, Jesus tells us it is his body given for us and his blood shed for us for the forgiveness of our sins. This is not something I can explain because it is in fact a mystery of our faith. Therefore, we believe Jesus is present for us in, with, and under the bread and wine, so that when we receive Holy Communion, we receive Jesus, as he promised.

Since we are on the subject of mystery, how about the miracles of the Bible? Let's start with the virgin birth of Jesus. Was it symbolic? How about Jesus healing lepers, restoring sight to blind men, casting out the demons of possessed people, walking on water, feeding 5,000 people with 5 loaves of bread and 2 fish, and raising a little girl and two adult males from the dead? Were these all symbolic too? Certainly, many have worked tirelessly to show that miracles are not mysteries revealed to us by God and the Lord Jesus, but rather everyday occurrences that can be explained by some natural cause.

This question of mystery is vitally important to us in the month ahead. Many of us will gather on Sunday, April 20 at 8:00 or 10:00am and proclaim, "Christ is risen! He is risen, indeed. Alleluia!" We will read a story from the Bible in which two angels will tell frightened women at the tomb of Jesus, "Why do you look for the living among the dead. He is not here; he has risen." Later in the story Jesus gathered with his troubled and doubting disciples and showed them his hands and feet, and if touching Jesus were still not enough for them, Jesus took some of their broiled fish and ate it in their presence.

Is the resurrection of Jesus symbolic too? Or is it one of those mysteries revealed to us by God that we cannot explain? The Apostle Paul says in 1 Corinthians 15, verses 14-15 that if Jesus is not raised then our faith is in vain, and we are misrepresenting God. He goes on to say in verse 19 that if Jesus has not been raised then we are all of people most to be pitied. Finally, in the very next verse Paul asserts, "But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead." After he says this, he does not attempt to make a rational explanation as to how this is true, except to proclaim, "Let me tell you a mystery."

The resurrection of Jesus is proclaimed because many of his closest followers were eyewitnesses. Paul writes that the risen Jesus appeared to Peter and all the disciples, more than 500 people at one time, and of course finally, to him. He was so convinced the resurrection of Jesus was real and not symbolic, that he was converted from someone who wanted to capture Christians dead or alive, to someone who became the greatest Christian missionary of all time, proclaiming the resurrection of Jesus from Jerusalem all the way to Greece. So, Paul believed in one the greatest mysteries of human history.

The resurrection of Jesus is the most precious mystery of Christian faith. As we face our own struggles, especially our own mortality, we look for the risen Christ to take us by the hand and lead us into this same mystery, that we too one day will be raised and enter into God's eternal home. As Mark 10:27 says, "all things are possible with God." In fact, I believe in all the mysteries of faith, the virgin birth of Jesus, his miracles, that we wholly receive Jesus' body and blood at Holy Communion, and that our Lord Jesus Christ is risen from the dead and is alongside you right now even as you are reading these words.

He is risen, indeed. Alleluia! You are in my prayers, Pastor Dan

Lent

Wednesday Lenten Theme "Be Still & Know That I Am God"

Wednesday midweek worship this Lent has focused on the Lord's Prayer and prayer in a series entitled, "Be Still & Know That I Am God". Each Wednesday worship includes a dialogue series between Pastor Tom and ULC youth, as well as Marty Haugen's Holden Evening Prayer liturgy, fun take homes for children, a sung version of the Lord's Prayer, Holy Communion, and a suggestion food items for you to bring for the Salvation Army Food Pantry.

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us
Bring boxed cereals for the Food Pantry

Week 6: April 9

"Jesus Versus Evil"

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil

Lent 2025

Lenten Thank You Notes

Worship, suppers, and fellowship have been great during the Lenten season. Here are some thank you notes related to the Lenten season so far:

- Thank you to everyone who wrote in our Lenten Devotional Book. Even after 12 years, the stories and reflections you share are treasures to all who read them.
- Thank you for your donations for food pantry. We are still collecting canned fruit and vegetables, canned soups, noodles and sauce, boxed meals, cereal, and desserts.
- Thank you for Lutheran World Relief donations. We are still collecting bars of soap, 52 by 27-inch bath towels, toothbrushes, combs, and fingernail clippers.

HOLY WEEK

A Peek at Holy Week 2025

The holiest time of the year for Christians is Holy Week. Between the seasons of Lent and Easter are Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday and Good Friday. Easter, or as it is more formally known, the Resurrection of our Lord, is earlier this year. Please make note of these dates:

- Palm Sunday, April 13 – "The Passion of Lord Jesus Christ"
A parade with palms, Chapel Choir, other special music
- Maundy Thursday, April 17, 7pm – "Jesus Last Night"
Preparation, Foot washing, First Communion, Betrayal
- Good Friday, April 18, 7pm – "An Angel's Eye View"
Crucifixion and death of Jesus, a service of diminishing light
- Easter Sunday Sunrise Service, April 20, 8:00am
"Morning Has Broken", a sunrise service led by ULC Youth
- Easter Sunday Breakfast, April 20, between 9-10:00am
Omelets, sausage patty, muffin, fruit, juice, and coffee
- Easter Festival Service, April 20, 10:00am
"Traditional Easter Worship", brass, special music, and more

Let this be the year you experience Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday, to get the full story of this critically important time of year for our faith tradition.

Easter Flower Garden

As is our custom, with your help we will "grow" an Easter Garden this year. Lilies, mums, tulips, hyacinth, hydrangea, and azaleas are all potentially part of this garden. If you would like to help us with this, please fill out our Easter Garden form. You will find them in the narthex at church or you may call the church office. We recommend a $10 donation toward the flowers. Of course, you may take your flower home after the 10am service that day.

Easter Garden

Chicago Folk in the Easter Season

The season of Easter includes seven Sundays including Easter Sunday – April 20. Sundays from April 27 to June 1, are also Sundays in Easter. This year on April 27, May 4, 11, and 18, we will resurrect an old friend, our Chicago Folk liturgy. Please join us for Sunday worship in late April and May to enjoy this beautiful contemporary worship setting.

Mission of the Month

The Mission of the Month for April is Journey Home Animal Rescue. Journey Home receives strays and owner surrenders. Animals are cared for medically and placed in foster homes. Of course, the ultimate goal for every animal is to be adopted into forever home. Every coin and dollar given at our Noisy Offering each Sunday and Wednesday will be directed toward this effort.

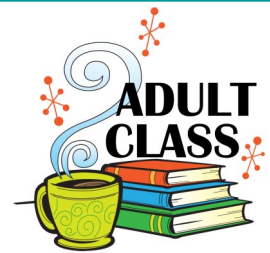

Please note: We are also collecting paper towels, potty pads, bleach, pet pens, scratching posts, puppy toys, non-rawhide durable bones (nylabones, marrow bones), kennel mats, slip lead dog leashes, martingale collars, Heartgard, and gift cards to local pet stores. Please look for the totes in the narthex to place your in-kind offerings there.

ULC Adult Education in April

Sunday Morning Adult Class "The Month of April"

Here is the schedule for our adult class this April. We meet at 8:45am in the lounge where the coffee is always hot and ready to go. There might even be some treats there too!

- April 6 – Pastor Gary will conclude his overview on "The Gospel of Luke"
- April 13 – Pastor Tom will teach one session class on the crucifixion called, "The Wounds of Christ"
- April 20 – No class on Easter Sunday
- April 27 – Pastor Tom will teach a one session class on the resurrection called, "It's A Ghost!"

Thursday Morning Bible Study "Judas and Peter"

Please join us for this fascinating look at two men who followed Jesus. Judas and Peter play prominent roles in the final days and hours of the life of Jesus. In some ways these two men are very similar. Both are disciples of Jesus. Both are witnesses to the arrest and trial of Jesus. Both fail Jesus in his final hours and are overcome by despair. Yet their futures could not be more different. Together we will explore what they did before, during, and after the crucifixion of Jesus. Together we will explore both their and our relationships with the Lord. Please join us Thursdays at 9:30am in the fellowship hall for this 6-week study beginning April 3.

WELCA Bible Study "Faithfulness"

This is the final month of our series called "Faithfulness" by Denise Rector. This series has examined what faithfulness looks like in some of life's hardest circumstances. In this session, we meet two people, Jairus and a faithful woman who has been bleeding for 12 years. They both take big faith risks when they reach out in their pain and disappointment and discover that Jesus meets them with compassion. Jesus is present in our actions as well, when our listening and grace make us stand out from the world around us. All ULC women and friends are invited to join us on April 11, 10:00am, in the fellowship hall.

Calling All Men "Father Abraham"

We are Calling All ULC Men and friends to our monthly breakfast and Bible study. This month we are starting a series on Abraham. Maybe as children you remember singing:

Father Abraham had many sons.
 Many sons had Father Abraham.
 I am one of them, and so are you.
 So, let's all praise the Lord.

We meet Abraham in Genesis 12, and his life with Sarah are the focus of the biblical narrative for 12 chapters. We will pick 6 stories to discuss and apply to our everyday lives. Please join us for breakfast pizza and the first of these studies on April 19 at 8:30am in the fellowship hall. Our first session is entitled, "Trusting God Most of the Time". Together we will consider Abraham's incredible call from God, as well as his amazing but not perfect faith.

ULC Visitation Team

You are invited to the ULC Visitation Team meeting, Friday, April 11, 1:00pm. This month we write Easter cards for our homebound and nursing home people. Please join us!

Feed My Starving Children

Our Greater Grand Forks MobilePack event is April 11-13. We are fundraising to pack meals for hungry children, and in April we pack these meals. This year we will pack over 400,000 meals. Our goal as a community is to raise around $117,500 and so far, we have $84,941.

So far at ULC, we are fundraising for this service event in these ways:

- Noisy Offerings at worship (January, February and March)
- ULC Endowment Fund awarded FMSC a $2,000 grant

Remember every 29 cents pays for one meal for a hungry child in our world. A generous gift of $30 pays for 103 meals, a gift of $50 pays for 172 meals, and a gift of $100 pays for 344 meals. What a wonderful way to serve hungry children!

Fun fact: Did you know that Feed My Starving Children has prepared 4,428,925,866 for hungry and starving children in our world.

Sign-up information to pack food is in the narthex!

Paul and Bonnie Cox Scholarship

We are now receiving applications for our fifth annual Paul and Bonnie Cox Scholarships. These scholarships are awarded to any person seeking any sort of post-secondary education. The deadline for applications is May 1. We hope to offer 2 $500 scholarships, although some years we awarded a few more. Applications are available in the church office and will eventually be mailed out to our 12th grade students. The scholarship committee will meet and hope to have an announcement to be made by June 1.

Financial News

Thank you for all your contributions to ULC so far in 2025. At the end of February our General Fund Balance was short, $11,098. What happened was that income was down a lot in January, which is not unexpected after a fabulous month of December. In February our income and expenses were basically even, which is where we hope it will be.

We are still receiving High Five Funds, which means that some people are giving $5 extra a week to give ULC at "high five" for the ministry we all do here together. It's a little cheesy, but also an effective way to raise a few extra dollars. Last year we raised an extra $965. That's 193 high fives. Could we maybe do more this year? Of course we can!

We have received our Blanche Evenson Gift from the Community Foundation. Blanche's gift to us this year is $5,477. Thank you, dear Blanche, for your yearly gift.

Youth News

APRIL WELCA NEWS

March 1st, we started with a general meeting and then had a wonderful program about aprons, the meaning and how they were used. Many thanks to Lara Dando, Janet Kuhl, Linda Graff and Shelly Meyer for making the program a success.

WELCA was in charge of the Lenten supper on March 12th. Baked potatoes were served with a topping of either melted cheese or chili. We served close to 100 meals, which was wonderful!

On National Quilting Day, 12 quilters met in the Fellowship Hall and church. They made 8 quilts and over 200 small prayer quilts. These prayer quilts will be available during the Salad Luncheon and hopefully throughout the year, celebrating the church's 75th anniversary.

Our first big event will be April 5th - our Salad Luncheon. Raffle tickets are now being sold in the narthex before and after church Wednesdays and Sundays. They will also be sold the day of the luncheon. The hours for the luncheon are 10:30am to 1pm. The cost for the lunch ticket is $10.00. Quilts, crafts and baked goods will be available for sale. Hope to see you all there!

Next WELCA meeting will be April 7th at 6:00pm in the Fellowship Hall.
